Future of City Recently Captured is in Hands of European Powers

ALBANIA NEXT PROBLEM

Settlement of Albania Trouble Depends Upon Whether Essad Pasha Will Withdraw Armies

AUSTRIA WILL SEND TROOPS

LONDON, MAY 5.—King Nicholas of Montenegro, having placed the future of Scutari in the hands of the European powers, the settlement of the Albania trouble now depends upon whether Essad Pasha and Djavid Pasha will obey the orders sent by the Sublime Porte to withdraw their armies to the Turkish empire. It is believed that as Montenegro has abandoned Scutari, Essad Pasha will recognize the futility of his aspirations to the kingship of Albania, in the face of threatened Austro-Italian expedition to expel him.

One of the ambassadors at the close of the ambassadorial conference at London today said:

"The situation is saved and the crisis is past. The reported Austro-Italian action in Albania has no point now."

Another meeting of the ambassadors will be held Thursday when arrangements with regard to the future of Scutari and Albania will be discussed.

King Nicholas to Abdicate.

Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, May 5.—King Nicholas will abdicate the throne of Montenegro in the near future, according to telegram received today by the Frankfurter Zeitung from its correspondent at Constantinople.

War Preparations Continue.

London, May 5.—The political atmosphere has cleared since it now appears unnecessary to coerce Montenegro. Military preparations continue, Austria and Italy being convinced of the necessity of landing sufficient forces in Albania to re-establish law and order. Italian and Austria troops in that territory it is pointed out will serve to maintain respect for the Albanian frontier fixed by the London conference.

Will Send Troops Into Albania.

Cologne, Germany, May 5.—It seems certain, the Cologne Gazette editorially declares this evening, that Austria and Italy will send troops into Albania irrespective of the outcome of the conference of European ambassadors in London.

Official Communication.

London, May 5.—At the close of the ambassadors' conference in London today an official communication was reached reading as follows:

"The fact that the King of Montenegro has placed the fate of Scutari in the hands of the powers is a matter of great satisfaction. The governments of the powers will now consider what arrangements should be made in the immediate future in regard to the town."

The ambassadors will meet again on Thursday.

King Nicholas of Montenegro in his telegram to Sir Edward Grey announcing his decision says of Austria's threats of coercion:

"My dignity and that of my people do not permit me to submit to isolated imposition. For this reason the fate of Scutari is left in hands of great powers."

MAY HAVE FURTHER PUNISHMENT IN STORE FOR DEPOSED MANAGER

President Johnson is Very Indignant Over Stovall's Act and He May or May Not Get Permission to Play Again This Season.

Chicago, May 5.—George Stovall, deposed as manager of the St. Louis American league team and indefinitely suspended as a player by B. B. Johnson, president of the league, as a result of Stovall's attack on Umpire Ferguson Saturday, may get permission to play again this season and may also be reinstated in his managerial berth, according to Mr. Johnson tonight. The question has not been finally decided and it is intimated further punishment is in store for Stovall.

This is said to be the first time that the manager of a major league team has been deposed by the president of the league.

President Johnson is very indignant over Stovall's act and today declared "there isn't room in the American league for players who commit offenses against public decency."

Stovall was ordered out of the game by Ferguson in the sixth inning of the game at St. Louis Saturday with the Cleveland team. In a rage at the order Stovall pulled Ferguson's cap from his head and spat upon the umpire's coat, according to the reports received here.

Johnson suspended Stovall by telegraph on receipt of Ferguson's report. The league president has demanded complete details of everything in connection with the occurrence.

PASS ANTI-ALIEN BILL.

Phoenix, Ariz., May 5.—To take the place of the un-enforced measure enacted a year ago, the lower house of the state legislature passed an anti-alien land ownership bill today that is far more drastic than the one which the legislature passed last year. The act prohibits any alien subject. The act prohibits any alien who has not declared intention to become a citizen from acquiring title to real property.

The bill was sent to the senate, where present prospects point to early passage.

REPUBLICANS FIGHT TARIFF FREE LIST

HOUSE REPUBLICANS ATTACK ITEMS IN UNDERWOOD BILL

Wearied By Persistence With Which the Democrats Rejected All Amendments, There was Little of a Real Struggle About the G. O. P. Effort

MONDAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate

Met at noon.

President Wilson submitted nominations for confirmation.

Chairman Simmons of finance committee announced no public hearing on tariff bill would be held.

Senator Pomerehne introduced resolution providing for investigation of civil service conditions.

Senator Oliver introduced resolution calling for all papers and information relative to request for resignation of Collector Hill at port of Philadelphia.

Senator Works made an address on trusts and combinations.

Adjourned at 5:14 p. m. until 2 o'clock Tuesday.

House.

Met at 11 a. m. and resumed reading of tariff bill for amendment under five minute debate rule.

Chief of engineers recommended that the channel in New York harbor be made 35 feet deep and 1,000 feet wide at cost of $1,950,000.

Recessed at 5:45 p. m. until 8 p. m.

Continued discussion of the free list at night session.

Adjourned at 10:06 p. m. until 11 o'clock tomorrow.

WASHINGTON, MAY 5.—The free list of the Underwood tariff bill with its Democratic promises of reductions in the cost of living furnished the gist of the legislative mills of the house today. Through a monotonous session the Republicans, wearied by the persistence with which the Democrats rejected all amendments, made perfunctory attempts to place on the dutiable list articles the Underwood bill would admit free. There was little of a real struggle about the Republican efforts, however, and only a few minor amendments proposed by the ways and means committee Democrats were adopted. While the house dragged along through the bill the senate finance committee made its plans for the consideration of the bill when it shall have passed the house.

It was decided not to hold oral hearings on the various schedules but to accept and consider any briefs that might be submitted by those interested in the tariff.

The house Republicans attacked hundreds of items in the free list of the Underwood bill.

In order to eliminate unnecessary debate Mr. Underwood, after the free list had been one-half completed secured an agreement to pass the paragraph which were not in controversy without debate. The disputed paragraphs were then taken up in order.

Republican opposition centered about the paragraphs admitting free of duty coal, iron ore, cotton, wool, wheat, wheat flour, corn, buckwheat, wood pulp and print paper, meats, lumber, leather, potatoes, works of art, fish, steel rails, barbed wire and dairy products.

Discussion of the free list was still in progress when the house adjourned at 10:06 until 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Take Up Sundry Civil Bill.

Carrying a total of nearly $117,000,000, the sundry civil appropriation bill was taken up in the senate today but after a three hour debate was put over until tomorrow when it probably will be passed.

Revision exempting labor and farm organizations from prosecution under the Sherman act with funds appropriated for anti-trust prosecution was the subject of attack by many Republicans. Senator Gallinger read part of the message which accompanied the veto by former President Taft of the same bill in the last hours of the last session of congress. Senators Borah, Cummins, Townsend and McCumber criticized legislation committee, argued that the bill be adopted in its present form and Senator Stone defended the exemption clause.

Reject Good's Amendment.

At the night session the Democrats rejected an amendment offered by Representative Good of Iowa, to provide for anti-mortem inspection of foreign meats. Free living meat, Mr. Good pointed out, would be subject to inspection, and he insisted that voting down his amendment would result in flooding the country with diseased meat from rejected cattle. Representative Willis of Ohio supported the amendment.

Representative Underwood declared the Republicans overlooked a provision of the pure food law requiring inspection certificates satisfactory to the secretary of agriculture on all meats imported. If this law had any loopholes in it, he said, the Democrats would pass one that would absolutely safeguard American health.

PLEADS BEFORE BOARD FOR ENRIGHTS PARDON

ATTORNEY ERNSTEIN CLAIMS SENTENCE WAS RESULT OF CONSPIRACY

Says Conviction of Enright Was Result of Clamor for the Conviction of Some One For Slayings and That the Police Had To Find a "Goat."

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., MAY 5.—"The conviction of Maurice Enright and his sentence to the state penitentiary for life was the greatest police conspiracy on record," were the words uttered by Attorney Chas. E. Erinstein today at a hearing by the board of pardons and Governor Dunne on a petition for Enright's pardon. Erinstein who represented Enright at the trial which resulted in his conviction of the murder of Vincent Altman in the Briggs House bar at Chicago, March 22, 1911, appeared voluntarily at today's hearing. Since the sentence was imposed upon Enright the charge has been made that his attorney failed to call witnesses, whose testimony would have given the accused man his freedom. In asking permission to be heard, Erinstein declared that he had traveled 14,000 miles—from Port Said, Egypt—in order to appear at the hearing and to "tell the truth."

Granted permission to be heard, Attorney Erinstein charged the Chicago police department and the state attorneys office with railroad-bribe Enright to the penitentiary.

"This was not a conspiracy on the part of labor men, as has been charged," said Erinstein, "but the greatest police conspiracy this country has ever known."

"Gentlemen before my God, William Gentlemen, the day before he was killed in Pat O'Malley's saloon, told me that he would 'get' Enright the same as he got Altman."

Arrests Police System.

Frequently during his plea to the pardon board Attorney Erinstein caustically arraigned the Chicago police system.

Inspector Hunt's reward for swearing away Enright's liberty is to daily see his successor walk by in a new uniform he declared.

Erinstein said the conviction of Enright was the result of general clamor for the conviction of some one for the labor slayings and that the police had to find a "goat." He attacked the alleged method employed by the police and the state's attorney office in entertaining witnesses for the state and declared that twelve honest men did not try Enright, but that one month after his conviction one witness named Byron was convicted of larceny.

It was necessary to get a conviction of some one at this time, and I declare that upon the altar of somebody's ambition was placed the body of Maurice Enright. The Saviour was not more unjustly convicted than was Enright," declared Erinstein.

Representatives of various labor organizations were present at the hearing and a number of pleas were made in Enright's behalf. The delegation first called upon Governor Dunne. A letter written by Irish former Police Inspector Nicholas Hunt and affidavit, in both of which he stated he testified falsely at the trial of Enright, and did not see Enright fire the fatal shot was made a part of the records of the board.

The board is expected to a recommendation to Governor Dunne in the case this week.

CHILD MURDERER NARROWLY ESCAPES LYING BY MOB

Six Year Old Girl is Found in Cellar With Throat Cut.

Calgary, Alberta, May 5.—A mob tonight attempted to lynch Joseph Dionne, a laborer, following the murder of six year old Yvonne Erick whose body was found in the cellar of a house occupied by Dionne. The police had difficulty in rescuing Dionne from the mob. When the disappearance of the girl was discovered a search was begun. George Erick, father of the child, called on the Dionne house but was refused admittance. A moment later Dionne, according to the police leaped from a window and darted down a street. He was struck on the head with a rock thrown by Erick and was rendered unconscious.

A search of the premises disclosed the body of the child lying in one corner of the cellar. Her throat had been cut from ear to ear.

These in charge of the army transport service here declared there was no special significance attached to the order.

AFFIRM CONTEMPT COURT JUDGMENTS

COURT OF APPEALS AFFIRMS JUDGMENTS ON LABOR LEADERS

Jail Sentences Imposed However were Held to Be too Severe and Sentences of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison were Reduced.

WASHINGTON, MAY 5.—Contempt of court judgments against Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, the labor leaders for their violation of a court's injunction in the noted Bucks Stove & Range company case were affirmed to day by the district court of appeals, but the jail sentences imposed were held to have been too severe; so the court reduced Gompers sentence from one year to thirty days and decreed that Mitchell and Morrison should merely be fined $500 each. The lower court sentenced Mitchell to nine months and Morrison to six. The supreme court of the United States undoubtedly will be asked to again review the decision.

Unlike previous decisions in this case, which have been unanimously against the labor leaders, the court of appeals was divided. Chief Justice Sheppard dissented, and held that the whole decision should be reversed; that contempt of a federal court was a criminal offense and that the statute of limitation had run in the case.

Justice Van Orsdel who concurred in the majority opinion, held that the refusal of Mitchell to assure the lower court of his intention to obey the mandate of inferior courts in the future was important in measuring the intent and temper of the respondents.

With that the dissenting chief justice disagreed, saying in his opinion:

"I am unable to see how the refusal to apologize for an act, the commission of which has been expressly denied, shows a reprehensible intent or temper. On the contrary, it seems to me the natural conduct of a self-respecting man, having sworn that he neither disobeyed or intend to disobey the mandate of the court a confession that he had done so, would be a solemn admission of the commission or willful perjury."

The majority decision was largely devoted to setting out why the original sentences were held unreasonable.

Gompers Critically Ill.

Washington, May 5.—Mr. Gompers is ill at a local hospital and his physicians decided not to inform him of the court's decision. He has been undergoing treatment for mastoiditis for several weeks and it was said tonight that his condition was such that any excitement might be dangerous.

Mr. Morrison was busy tonight reading the court's opinion and the dissenting opinion of Chief Justice Sheppard, preparatory to conference with his counsel tomorrow.

Had Expected Reversal.

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., May 5.—John Mitchell tonight expressed disappointment over the decision in the contempt case, that he had expected a reversal and expressed the belief the case would be carried to the supreme court.

The testimony developed that La Count had spent but two days with his seventeen year old bride before he went to his duty as government inspector on the Panama canal, and that improper conduct, if any between Williams and Mrs. LaCount, took place on only one occasion, when they knew the husband's return was imminent and they did not expect to see each other again.

Leavenworth, Kans., May 5.—Major Robert Wilson McCloy, for the last fourteen years warden of the federal penitentiary here, and one of the best known criminologists in the United States, forwarded his resignation to the department of justice to day. In making known this fact, the warden who is 74 years old, said he thought he had "been on the job long enough."

Warden McCloy was probably better informed on prison affairs than any other man in America. He served fourteen years as warden of the Illinois State prison at Joliet, ending this service in 1888, when he was appointed superintendent of the industrial reformatory at Huntington, Pa. Three years later he became superintendent of the Chicago police department and later was superintendent of the Illinois State Reformatory at Pontiac.

Warden McCloy was known as the "humane warden." His advice to his subordinate was "treat a prisoner like he was a man—make a man of him."

Under these methods prisoners were put upon their honor to observe the rules. Authorities who have visited Leavenworth have hailed it as "the perfectly disciplined prison."

After they had left the authorities discovered that the tale was hoax. They took the direction of the nearest interurban line. The girl is considered mentally weak and warrants are out for Burch's arrest on the charge of seduction. The woman is forty years and Burch 32.

JAP EMBASSY WILL PROTEST ALIEN LAW

Protest Against California Alien Land Law Now Being Prepared

COURTS MUST DECIDE

No Matter What the Objection May Be Only the U. S. Courts Can Settle Question

BRYAN WILL RECEIVE NOTE

WASHINGTON, MAY 5.—The Japanese embassy was supplied by the state department today with a copy of the alien land owning bill passed by the California legislature and the ambassador will employ the time between now and Secretary Bryan's return to Washington in preparing a formal protest against the measure.

Apparently the embassy has no hope that any word President Wilson may send after Secretary Bryan returns will influence Governor Johnson to withhold his signature from the act, so the only object of the protest will be to acquaint the American people with the Japanese contention and, if possible, to influence the executive branch of the government to endeavor to nullify the action of the California legislature. The embassy will make known the ground of its protest in a diplomatic note to Secretary Bryan. It is well understood that to settle the question, no matter what may be the point of objection, will require the action of the United States courts, and much consideration must be given to the procedure to be followed in arranging for a judicial test of the California law. It will be for Secretary Bryan to determine whether the United States government itself shall become a party to a suit of this character in the capacity of an interactor. International law years hint that the administration is in a seemingly delicate position for the reason, that, while apparently a champion of the Japanese cause through the secretary of state before the California legislature, probably from this point on it must defend the California law against Japan in the diplomatic struggle about to begin. If the department should adopt the California contention that the land law does not violate the existing treaty with Japan then it might feel bound to refuse to submit the issue to arbitration by The Hague tribunal. Furthermore it is contended that the United States government probably would be unable to enforce the decree of the tribunal in case it should be adverse to California, if the American courts found that the state acted within its rights in enacting the law. No case has yet been found where the supreme court has passed upon the relative force of a treaty which invades the reserved constitutional powers of a sovereign state and of a conflicting law of such state. It developed today that as a result of the centering of attention on the California situation, a number of diplomatic representatives in Washington have been informally discussing and conferring over alleged violations of treaties by many states of the union. Violations are said to have occurred particularly in connection with cases involving the disposition of property of aliens who have died interstate in this country and in which local state courts have taken jurisdiction in defiance of treaties.

Altogether there are indications of a feeling of unrest that may lead to demands upon the national government which could not be complied with without a general re-arrangement of the functions of the national and state governments, so far as they concern aliens.

Will Suffer Commercially.

San Francisco, May 5.—According to Don Alfredo Irrazaval, Chilean ambassador to Tokio, who arrived here today from the orient, this country will suffer commercially through Japan's refusal to participate in the Panama-Pacific exposition if the anti-alien land bill passed by the California legislature becomes a law.

"The Japanese have made many sacrifices," declared Mr. Irrazaval, "to retain the friendship of the United States. The action of the Japanese government in stopping Cooley immigration is evidence of its willingness to meet the United States half way."

SANE CHICAGO ORDINANCE.

Chicago, May 5.—No more passengers may be admitted to a street or elevated railroad car in Chicago, than can be provided with seats, according to an ordinance unanimously passed by the city council tonight.

TEACHERS APPOINTED FOR ENSUING YEAR

SUPERINTENDENT FURR RE-ELECTED BY BOARD.

President Davis Appoints Standing Committees—John E. Hall, New Member From First Ward Takes Office.

At the regular monthly meeting of the board of education held Monday evening, Superintendent of Schools W. A. Furr was chosen for the ensuing year, as were the teachers and other employees of the schools. John E. Hall, the new member from the first ward, took his office. President Davis made the appointment of standing committees and routine business was transacted.

In the list of appointments the names of W. G. Bate, A. F. Cook, Miss Isabel Melick, all of the high school; Miss Olive T. Huss of the first ward and Miss Hattie Adams of the fourth ward, are missing, they having resigned. Miss Frances Marie Scott was chosen to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Mr. Cook. Miss Henrietta Lyman to take Mr. Bate's place and Miss Agnes Rogerson to take Miss Melick's place. William Allcott was appointed assistant manual training instructor at the high school. In the Jefferson school Miss Clara Cobb was chosen principal. Misses Kate Fanning, Nellie Seegar and Jessie Yeck teacher. In the Washington school Miss Verna Smith was appointed a teacher. Newton Angel was appointed janitor of the first ward and Alex Whitley as assistant janitor of the high school.

The meeting was called to order at 8:20 o'clock by President Davis with all members present and under the head of communications the clerk read the president's appointment of standing committees for the ensuing year. President Davis explained before the reading of the committees that he had appointed each member at the head of one important committee and that he had also appointed all of the members on each committee. The names of the chairman of the various committees follow: Finance, E. E. Bavington; high school, G. S. Rogerson; teachers and salaries, Dr. L. H. Clampt; course of study, text books, library and supplies, J. E. Hall; buildings and fixtures, E. E. Bavington; rules, regulations and complaints, Dr. L. H. Clampt.

The reports of officers were received and placed on file. Superintendent Furr's report showed the per cent of attendance as follows: High school 96, eighth grade 96, Jefferson 92, Lafayette 91, Franklin 96, Morton 97, Washington 95. Treasurer Farrell's report showed a balance of $25,492.41 in the general fund and $35,472.63 in the building and repair fund May 1.

Member Clampt, chairman of the teachers and salaries committee read the appointments of teachers as agreed upon by the committee at recent meeting. The appointments were voted on by schools and the only dissent was the naming of Miss Jessie Yeck and Miss Kate Fanning as teachers in the first ward and Alex Whitley as assistant janitor of the high school.

Member Clampt stated that he had no personal feeling in the matter, but as Miss Marie Meaney had made a capable instructor he could not vote for the appointment of Miss Yeck, named by Member Hall, to take her place. A vote showed that Member Clampt was alone in the matter, as the other three members voted for the appointment of Miss Yeck, giving her a majority. Miss Flossie Proctor, a substitute teacher, was nominated by Member Clampt as teacher in the first ward, and Miss Kate Fanning was named for the same position by Member Hall. Upon roll call all members excepting Dr. Clampt, voted for Miss Fanning. A number of applications for teacher were referred to the committee.

History of the Horse.

The horse has been employed in the service of mankind, both in peace and war, since earliest times. Indeed, his origin is traditional, antedating history many years. They were kept in Syria, for in Genesis it speaks of Joseph giving his brethren bread in exchange for horses. They were also very plentiful in ancient Egypt, as there were "horsemen" and "chariots" in Pharaoh's army when he chased the children of Israel into the Red sea. In Kings we read of "Solomon, who had 40,000 stalls of horses," so Palestine was well supplied. As to color, horses were of various colors in ancient times, the same as now, for in Zechariah 1, 8, and 11, 2, we find "white horses, black horses, red horses, bay horses and speckled horses" are mentioned. In James 1, 3, it is: "Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths that they may obey us." The native habitation of the horse is supposed to have been Tartary, and from those herds have spread the horses of the world. Glenner.

Mr. Shaw and a Poet.

Mr. Bernard Shaw was to speak at the dinner of the Society of Authors, and a place had been set apart for him next to Mrs. Tweedle. But Shaw, being a vegetarian, did not put in an appearance until the meat course was over. Meanwhile his place was taken by another author. A gushing lady who sat opposite him all through the meal, telling him how greatly she admired his writings. Finally she begged for his autograph and asked him to write under his name, "Man and Superman." "Don't you love it the best?" she asked. "Never read it in my life." "What? You do not mean to say that you are not Bernard Shaw?" "No," was the disconsolate admission. "I'm only Lewis Morris, the poet." The lady was disposed to be generously forgiving. "Never mind," she said; "you had better sign your autograph all the same."—From Mrs. Alec Tweedle's "Book of Reminiscences."

Canine Habits.

Dogs when watching things keep one of their fore paws doubled up because in their wild state they were used to approaching their prey step by step and kept one paw doubled up to be ready to advance it with all possible caution at the next opportune moment. This habit of crawling to watch their prey, advancing cautiously while preparing to rush or spring, may be observed in the meeting of two dogs, strangers to each other, any day, particularly in the country. The dog who sees the other first, after giving him a cautious look, invariably lowers his head and tries to conceal himself by crouching, a maneuver necessary in the wild state. It is continued nowadays either in play or as a matter of expedient. Either the dog is preparing for an attack or by lying down gives notice to the other dog that he is friendly and doesn't care to fight.—Boston Herald.

Walking and Muscular Work.

The muscular work performed in the simple act of walking is much greater than most of us have any idea of. Walking at the moderate rate of three miles an hour is equivalent to lifting the body perpendicularly through one-twentieth of the distance walked. If the person walk one mile at the rate mentioned the amount of work done would be equivalent to lifting the body perpendicularly through a distance of 264 feet. Supposing a person weighing 150 pounds walks five miles, he is doing work which equals the lifting of nearly eighty-eight tons one foot high. Yet all the movements of walking are, in the case of a healthy person, performed quite subconsciously, so that all the muscles employed in the act are actually exercising and developing themselves.

Life Passion of an Artist.

"I do not believe in any real enjoyment outside of work, or interest belonging to it," G. F. Watts said. When he was young he used to forsake his bed, because sleeping in comfort robbed him of the first daylight hours, and he preferred to lie wrapped in rugs on the hard floor, so as to waken early and begin work. When he was old and frail he tried to be eighty-seven and painted to the end—the same spirit made him impatient of the dark winter mornings. "How I wish it was time to begin work again!" he would sigh.—Molra O'Neill in Blackwood's Magazine.

MISS JOHNSON ADDRESSES
DRAMA LEAGUE

Plautus and Early Roman Comedy Discussed at Library Monday Evening.

Miss Mary Johnston, of the Woman's college addressed members of the Drama League on "The Roman Comedy, Plautus," Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the public library. She discussed the origin of Roman comedy and its relation to the Greek, gave an account of Plautus' work and the state of the drama of his time, and made a resume of a number of the nineteen plays left by him.

The beginnings of Latin literature, Miss Johnston pointed out, came into contact with the Greek models which they afterwards followed, in the third century B. C. The days of a purely Italian life for Rome were over and the effects of the Hellenic civilization began to appear. The Greek writings of this time which influenced Roman drama were afterwards lost in large measure, so that a study of Plautus is important for a correct understanding of the later Greek comedy as well as the early Roman. Plautus was born about 254 B. C. in a city of Umbria. Tradition says that he began his stage career at Rome, but was reduced to poverty at an early period by unwise investments. He later devoted himself to making Greek versions of Latin plays until his death in 184 B. C.

Miss Johnston described at some length the Roman stage of Plautus' time. She gave brief accounts of the more important of his nineteen plays, illustrating their style and their merciless incisive of some well selected quotations. In conclusion she stated that other poets followed Plautus, but that he was the one who most completely satisfied Roman taste. "He remained the popular poet of Rome, and, to quote Mommsen, ever since the passing of the Roman world, the theater has returned repeatedly to his plays."

Miss Johnston will continue her account of the development of Roman drama next Monday evening at the library at the same hour.

REAPPOINTED SUPERINTENDENT

At the regular meeting of the board of education Monday night Prof. W. A. Furr was reappointed as superintendent of the Jacksonville schools. The board has done well in continuing Superintendent Furr. He is just rounding out eight years of service for the Jacksonville schools and they have seen eight years of hard, earnest and efficient work. Supt. Furr is a man who has school interests wholly on his heart and mind and he lets nothing interfere with his work. He has not only training and ability but the genuine interest as well and under his direction the schools of Jacksonville have constantly advanced. As an educator Mr. Furr is recognized all over this state and elsewhere as thoroughly capable and his connection with the schools of this city gives our system here recognition elsewhere as being of high standard.

JOIN THE SHIRT SLEEVE CLUB.

A new organization has been born in Jacksonville to be known as "The Shirt Sleeve Club." Every man who is willing to take off his coat and go to work this week and help clean up Jacksonville is entitled to a full membership in the club.

This city has been long in need of such a club, but it has taken the proclamation of the mayor designating this week as "Clean Up Week" to start the organization. The work of the members will be confined to hard labor, but not necessarily like that of the prisoner on the rock pile. They will have the ash and the tin can piles to spend their energy on.

The charter members are those who for a cleaner and more healthful Jacksonville and they have chosen Mayor Davis as their honorary president. The members will meet at different times this week in the back yards and in the alleys. If you are a citizen with a goodly amount of civic pride you will see how many members you can get to join this rapidly growing club.

The daily papers will keep the public in touch with what this club is doing every day this week so be sure and watch for the proceedings of the "Shirt Sleeve" club. Call up the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce if you want to know more of the particulars. The club hopes to make some good arrangements for the entertaining of the Mother's congress which meets in Jacksonville this week.

BISHOP'S APPROVE

WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

In another column of this issue appears the appeal issued by the board of bishops of the M. E. church asking support and aid for the campaign now in progress at Illinois Woman's college. The board of bishops is the highest authority in the great Methodist church and it is a splendid testimonial to the college when the bishops say: "Fifty-five thousand dollars remains to be raised. The time is short and the issue is great. This is the only college exclusively for women the M. E. church now has west of Pittsburg. The character of its work and the spirit of its life are of the highest order. No institution in the church has been better managed."

When Dr. Harker during the Jacksonville campaign some weeks since said that the total sum of $150,000 must be raised if the Woman's college is to continue to exist as such, there were some people who thought the need for the money was urgent but who really did not realize the seriousness of the situation. Dr. Harker has for months and months gone up and down the land, working by day and by night, trying to impress upon the people that a crisis confronts the Woman's college. The time for completing the fund grows short and the bishops of the church agreeing heartily with President Harker in his view of the situation have issued this strongly worded appeal to all Methodism. It will no doubt call to the aid of the college friends who have not had a full understanding of the seriousness of the situation.

Artificial Ears.

Artificial ears are so skillfully made that they may with difficulty be distinguished from natural ones. It is claimed. When the individual who has lost an ear applies to the manufacturer for a substitute, there is made a mold of the remaining ear. If there be left any part of the other a mold of that part also must be taken to assist in the fitting of the artificial. Manufacturers assert that no two ears are alike and that it takes a skillful workman to prepare an ear from the mold or molds. When finished the new ear is pasted on the stump or simply set in the position of the lost ear. It is really only the first artificial ear that is expensive, the chief cost pertaining to the making of the mold. Vulcanized rubber, which can be bent and twisted, has been found to constitute the best material for the making of artificial ears.—Harper's Weekly.

Xerxes Made Mount Athos an Island. Mount Athos is unlikely ever to be turned into an island again, as it was by Xerxes. The canal which he cut through the isthmus was regarded as a myth even in the time of Juvenal, but traces of it are still in existence.

One circumstance of its construction, recorded by Herodotus, may help to explain why it was a three years' business to cut this canal of less than twelve furlongs. Nearly all the people employed by Xerxes dug straight down, with the result that the sides continually fell in, thus doubling their work. The Phoenicians, with their superior intelligence, began excavating at a breadth much greater than the canal itself was to occupy, so as gradually to narrow with a convenient slope as they dug down.

London's Street Traffic.

It was not until about thirty years ago that London's existing system of regulating traffic at street corners was instituted. At the beginning it required four policemen at every important junction to do with difficulty what two constables and sometimes one now effect by a motion of the hand. But the men in blue stuck to their task and hung on to horses' heads and summoned rebellious drivers till the reign of law and order was established.

CITY COUNCIL WILL JOIN IN REST ROOM MOVEMENT

Committee Appointed to Investigate the Project—Under Sub-Foundations For Sidewalks Barred—Clean-Up Week Is Endorsed.

The regular weekly session of the city council was held Monday morning with Mayor Davis presiding and all members present.

The reports of officers for the past month were received and approved. A communication was read from Senator Logan Hay acknowledging the receipt of a letter expressing the views of the mayor and council on the utilities bill. The ordinance permitting property owners to use cinders instead of rock for the sub-foundation of sidewalks was read again and was lost. A committee was appointed to confer with the Woman's club and see if it will be advisable to fit up the pagoda in the park as a rest room. City Attorney Thompson was instructed to devote his attention to the drafting of street railway, gas and electric franchises, giving such work the preference over other city ordinances. A resolution in memory of Joseph Tomlinson, a former mayor was presented by Mayor Davis and was adopted.

The minutes were read after the call to order and then some minor matters of business were given attention. Properly approved bills were ordered paid and Commissioner Knollenberg said it would be possible to take care of the April pay roll.

The council voted to join in the work of "cleaning up" Jacksonville this week and elsewhere in this city is a proclamation issued by Mayor Davis in accordance with the action taken. Commissioner Newman agreed to have the street department haul away all rubbish collected and will secure extra teams for the work if necessary.

Commissioner Newman asked about requiring dogs to be muzzled and spoke of reading about a number of mad dogs in the county. He was in favor of having the police department take action relative to the licensing and muzzling of dogs and asked about an ordinance covering the matter. Commissioner Knollenberg said he had such an ordinance on file and would dig it up by next meeting.

Commissioner Engel expressed himself as in favor of buying life preservers for the commissioners. It seems that one of the commissioners recently made a misstep and fell in the lake when he visited Nichols park.

A communication was read from C. R. Joy informing the city of the plans for the tri-state power zone exhibition to be held August 5, 6 and 7 at Keokuk to mark the completion of the great dam there. A letter from Logan Hay to Mayor Davis acknowledging the receipt of a letter setting forth the views of the council on utility legislation.

A report from the Fidelity & Casualty Co., showed the boilers at the water works station to be in good condition.

There was some discussion of the plan to make the pagoda in Central park into a rest room. The council seemed favorable to the proposition but did not think the city could afford to pay for having a woman in charge of it. This part of the plan may not be essential and Mayor Davis appointed as a committee to confer with the Woman's club about the matter Commissioners Newman, Knollenberg and Brennan.

wanted to make a motion that the city attorney be instructed to get to work at once on street railway and gas and electric franchises and that he give this matter the preference over other work and doing nothing with paying work until this is done. He acknowledged that previously he had wanted the street paving work pushed regardless of the franchises but said that he had since been advised by good attorneys that this would endanger the city's rights and that he had therefore changed his position.

Mayor Davis said that if the laying of paving on streets traversed by the street car lines would cause the city any loss of rights that this had been done long ago. He said that the franchises expired in 1897 and that a lot of work had been done since that time. He instructed Attorney Thompson to prepare the franchises as suggested.

The following resolution prepared by Mayor Davis was read and was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The Almighty Ruler of the universe has seen fit to call from us Joseph Tomlinson, a former mayor and an esteemed and valued citizen of this city.

Mr. Tomlinson during his residence in Jacksonville was closely identified with all of the forward movements of the municipality in the last half century; as an alderman from the fourth ward and as chief executive of the city his influence was always for a greater and better Jacksonville.

In his long business career he gained an enviable reputation for integrity and upright dealings with his fellow men. By his death the city loses one of its wisest counselors in business and municipal affairs.

Therefore it is the sense of the city council of the city of Jacksonville that this expression of sympathy be extended to the family and be made a part of the records of this council.

A notice which has been served on the city attorney and city clerk was read setting forth that Elmer E. Day had been injured April 24th by falling on a defective sidewalk near North Diamond street. W. N. Haigrove is attorney for the claimant.

After some further discussion of various matters the council adjourned.

Officers' Reports.

The report of Dr. A. M. King, health warden, showed for the past month: Deaths out of city, 5; in city, 15; at insane, 1; ages, under 1, two; 1 to 5, one; 5 to 20, two; 20 to 50, nine; 50 to 70, ten; over 70, seven. Contagious diseases, whooping cough, 1; scarlet fever, 1; mumps, 2; measles, 20.

The report of the water superintendent, W. H. Cobb, showed total collection, $2287.71; water rent, $2192.96; meters sold, 4; meters repaired, $40.75.

The report of W. E. Thompson, justice of the peace, showed fines collected, $265.80; city costs, $46.20; justice of peace, $70.49; total, $382.40.

Weller, city matron, reported one case of a feeble minded colored girl; four recurrent cases of white girls; two white boys refused to go to school and spent time on streets; all these cases were investigated and corrected as far as possible. Two dependent girls have been placed in comfortable homes.

"CLEAN UP WEEK" BEGAN YESTERDAY IN JACKSONVILLE

The Mayor and the City Administration Are Back of the Movement—Cleaner Streets and Alleys Promised.

Mayor Davis issued a proclamation yesterday proclaiming this week as "Clean Up Week" for the city of Jacksonville. Other cities over the whole country have adopted such house cleaning methods for themselves and with good results.

The Chamber of Commerce and the Women's club will have active committees in the field and will make an inspection of many of the places in the business districts near the square. They expect to report these to the proper city officers.

Now is the time for residents to get busy and clean up the piles of ashes covered with rubbish and tin cans. A general spring house cleaning will be good for the streets and alleys of Jacksonville and the city will be the more slightly and healthier thereby. The city will haul away the rubbish if notified so this week is the time to clean.

CLEAN UP.

Everybody cleans house in the spring. Why not clean up the yards and the alleys adjacent to your property? Jacksonville will have several conventions here within the next few weeks. The city is doing its part in the work of cleaning up. Why not help us. Every city in the state at the present time has a house cleaning week. Jacksonville should have one. Therefore set aside the week of May 5 for a general house cleaning and would ask all citizens to take part in it and make it a success. The department of streets and public improvements will furnish teams to haul away your refuse if it is placed in a convenient place and a notification sent to O. H. Spaulding, superintendent of streets.

George W. Davis, Mayor.

MINISTERS IN SESSION.

The district ministerial meeting of the pastors in this district met in Meredecia Monday evening and will close this evening. Among the number who were in the city Monday enroute to attend the conference were Rev. J. P. Edgar, Carrollton; Rev. F. G. Watkins, Iberdun; Rev. W. C. Cross, Rockledge; Rev. J. A. Biddle, Murraville; Rev. O. H. Myers, Chanderlville. The reverend gentlemen were attended by Rev. Dr. F. A. McCarty, district superintendent. Among those who will make addresses before the conference is Rev. W. T. Hobert, a returned missionary of China.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

The Young Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Grace M. E. church met yesterday with Miss Stella Shuff on West North street. Miss Shuff being assisted in entertaining by Miss Ethel Wylder. The devotional was led by Miss Winifred Palmer Jones and Mrs. Herbert Capps told of "Medic Work in China." Mrs. Edgar Martin gave a splendid piano solo and Mrs. M. E. Gilbert read a paper on "What Shall Chinese Women Read."

The house was decorated in white and purple lilacs. Following the program a social hour was enjoyed and light refreshments were served.

SENATOR WORKS SCORES ROCKEFELLER FOUNDATION

Efforts Being Made in Congress to Incorporate the $100,000,000 Rockefeller Foundation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., MAY 6.—Efforts in congress to incorporate the $100,000,000 Rockefeller foundation were scored today by Senator Works who declared them a "proposal to 'farm out' to John D. Rockefeller and his associates the right and power to educate the people of the country with money accumulated by criminal means." Senator Works' statement was made in connection with a speech he delivered in the senate today on trusts and combination, the existence of which he blamed to the high protective tariff policy.

"The extent to which this may be carried out is practically unlimited. The corporations and institutions of learning which may be established throughout the country in the hands of people who will be subservient to the interests and views of Mr. Rockefeller and his associates are without number or limitation," said the senator.

"If Gotten Gains." "We do not want our children to be taught the ways nor the methods of John D. Rockefeller or his kind, nor to be generous with ill-gotten gains, nor to touch, handle, or profit by gold that should blister the fingers of the man who has accumulated it by extortion, oppression and crime, and is now attempting to rid himself of it by giving it away, nor to become the receivers of stolen goods in the name and under the guise of charity."

The continued existence of trusts and monopolies the senator said was due to the inadequacy of the Sherman anti-trust law which he declared should be so amended that specific restraints of trade shall be unlawful with suitable punishment for those who violate the law. While he was not in favor of a high protective tariff which fostered capitalist combination, he said he would be in favor of an effort to protect the wage earner in his earnings and that he believed it would be "an excellent thing to harmonize the tariff and wages."

A Right to Fair Wages.

"The interstate commerce commission," continued the senator, "should be allowed to determine whether fair wages are being paid by any concern; and if not, to compel the employer employing foreign laborers and paying European wages to pay the same tariff on its manufactured goods that are enforced against foreign importations until its wages are increased to a fair scale for American workmen. If a high tariff did in fact protect the wage earner I would cheerfully stand for its continuance, even at the expense of higher prices to the consumer. The evident purpose of the so-called tariff experts is, so far as progress has been made, to deprive the farmers, who are themselves laboring men, and wage earners in most cases, of all protection and preserve it to the trust and millionaire manufacturers. This would be a fatal mistake. In most cases our manufacturers and business men can compete with the world and make profits. They can and do sell their goods cheaper in foreign markets than at home. With the farmer, in many cases, it is different.

The Duty of Democracy.

"The wage earner must be protected in his earnings and reasonable hours of labor, the consumer in reasonable prices, and the whole people must be protected in their independence and liberty. The equality of all men must be made a reality and not a theory. If the Democratic party can and will accomplish these results, demanded by the people, it may live and maintain itself in power. If it does not, its reign will be brief. If neither of the old parties can or will restore the government to the people as our forefathers handed it down, then a new party will be raised up that will do the people's will. It will be a party of the people's own making, founded on justice, fair dealing, and disinterested patriotism. I am ready to give the Democratic party a fair trial. I am willing to wait and see and to lend my aid to that party or any other to bring about justice and beneficent laws through and by which the whole people may be brought into their own and their just rights fostered and protected."

QUIT CALOMEL

Thousands Are Turning From This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Stoolsoftener Is Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. Edwards, a prominent physician of Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar coated, olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of 17 years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They oil the bowels, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities. 10c and 25c per box.

DUBUQUE'S STAR HURLER IS WILD AND DANVILLE WINS.

Quick Double Play in Ninth Prevents Dubuque From Tying the Score
When Witte Slows Up—Poor Ball
Played by Both Teams.

Danville, Ill., May 5.—Jasper was somewhat wild and was found easily by local batters. Witte showed signs of distress in the ninth, but a double play prevented Dubuque from tying the score.

Quiesner was struck by a pitched ball in the sixth and was unable

HIGHLANDERS WON NO GAMES ON HOME GROUNDS

Close First Home Stay By Losing
Last Game of Series to Athletics
8 to 1.

New York, May 5.—The New York Americans closed their first home stay without winning a game on the local grounds. They were beaten again by the Athletics today, the score being 8 to 1. Score:

Laporte is doing neat work for the Senators. But he isn't as fast as Foster. The latter may be back in the game before the month is out. He has had quite a siege of it with typhoid fever but his youth and good physical condition are in his favor.

Moeller, Milan and Shanks make up an outfield which one might hesitate about trading for Hooper,
Speaker and Henriksen.

WHITE SOX DROP SUNDAY
CONTEST TO FRANKLIN 4 TO 3

Loose Fielding and Poor Base Running Give Opponents Game—
Ninth Inning Exciting.

Loose fielding and base running on the part of the Jacksonville White Sox caused their defeat in a contest with Franklin at that place Sunday. In the eighth Franklin secured three runs, making their total 4. Interest was at high pitch in the ninth when Arisman, for the Sox, knocked a two bagger, bringing two men home. In an attempt to stretch the hit into a three bagger, Arisman was thrown out, ending the contest with the score 4 to 3.

This was the first game of the season and next Sunday they will play at Mason City.

The score:
Club. R. H. E.
Jacksonville. 001 000 002-3 5 9

SIMMS TO REPORT TODAY.
Edwin "Buck" Simms expects to leave this afternoon for Pekin to join the team at that place for the season.
Mention was made some time ago that "Buck" had signed a contract as pitcher in Jack Herlihy's aggregation and Monday he received notice to report for work.

Milan is after the base stealing honor again. He stole two on Cady yesterday which is going some.

ON THE SIDE LINES.

Billy Sullivan, the one time star catcher of the White Sox, acting as chief of scouts for the same club, was in Dubuque Sunday to watch Hy Jasper pitch. Rain interfered.
There was a dozen other big league men on hand to see what the newest sensation in baseball had to offer.
It looks like a sure thing that he will go up higher before the season is a week older.

Coch R. A. P. Holderby, so well and favorably known in this city, now connected with the St. Charles School for Boys, was in the city yesterday but found time to visit his old stamping grounds on College Hill and watch Harmon's squad at practice. He was quite favorably impressed. Mr. Holderby, in commenting on Jasper's sudden leap into national fame, says that Hy should develop into a real pitcher as he has the natural ability and only needs correct handling. If he signs with the Sox he'll get it, as Billy Sullivan is a natural born developer of green material. Mr.
Holderby will return to St. Charles today.

A pitcher may hold the opposition to one hit yet lose his game.
That's what happened to Artie Fronme the Cincinnati pitcher in Sunday's game with Pittsburgh. And it was the man pitted against him, Babe Adams, that made the hit, a three bagger, following a base on balls to Kelly, that enabled his side to win. It was one of the greatest games of the year. The Tinklers have begun to perk up a bit and may be heard from yet.

Buck Simms, our own white hope, leaves for Pekin today where he will be given a tryout by Jack Herbert. Here's hoping he makes good. Buck is a hard-working, ambitious player and knows the game much better than the average bagger. He has made a good record with local teams and has many friends in this town who will wish him well. It is to be hoped that he is given a fair and thorough trial with the Celestials.

Stoval has drawn an indefinite suspension for his foolish run in with Umpire Ferguson. He is needed right now by his team. Nice example he sets his men. It looks as if players never would learn discretion. Huggins almost kicked himself into suspension at Chicago but Guthrie had mercy on him and let him off.

The big surprise of the past week was the success of Ed. Konetchy the Cardinals first baseman, who made his debut as a pitcher against the Cubs and stopped a rally which was threatening to break up the game.<

Fine Remedy For Eczema

Also for Salt Rheum, Tetter, Psoriasis, Lupus, and All Skin Afflictions.

Even a Microscope Won't Find a Blemish After S. S. S. Gets Through.

All skin troubles should be attacked from within by giving the blood circulation a good daily bath. This is accomplished with S. S. S., the best known and most highly recommended blood purifier ever discovered. Its action is very rapid. Its vegetable nature is such that it naturally goes right into the blood, saturates the entire circulation, bathes the tissues with an influence that enables the skin to heal quickly. The action of S. S. S. is that of an antidote, and this fact has been demonstrated time and time again in the most severe forms of weeping eczema.

Its influence in the tissues where the tiny arteries transfer the red blood for the worn out blood to the veins is quite remarkable and goes on constantly with every tick of the clock—the beat of the heart.

And new skin is thus caused to form while the germs of irritating infection that cause eczema are scattered and their harmful nature entirely suspended.

S. S. S. has a wonderful tonic influence in the blood because it contains no "drugs" is not a "physic" is entirely free of any mineral drugs or any other drugs except the remarkable medicinal effect of the pure vegetable products of which it is made.

Few people realize how harmful are many of the strong, crude ointments that used to be in favor before they learned that S. S. S. is safe, speedy and sure. Ask at any drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. Give it a good trial and you will soon see a decided improvement in any form of skin trouble. Write to The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for special free advice on eczema and any other form of skin or blood trouble.

WOMAN SICK FOURTEEN YEARS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.:—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sanative Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me.

"If these lines will be of any benefit to you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

GIVES INSIGHT TO LIFE IN JAPAN

THE MIKADO'S PALACE PROVES AN INTERESTING PLACE.

Beauties of the Castle of Nijo Are Described—Was Erected in 1601—Street Scenes in a Japanese City—Men and Women Work Side by Side.

The images are in various forms, five feet high with a lot of designs, many headed like a horse and thousands. The real Buddha Kuanan has but forty hands, which hold various emblems, such as the lotus flower, the wheel, a skull, an axe, meant to typify a severance from all worldly cares. A pair of hands folded on the image's lap serve to hold the soul of the mendicant priest. The horse headed Kwanin has three heads and four pairs of arms, a horse's head being carved above the forehead of the central face. One of the four pairs of arms is clasped before the breast in the attitude emblematic of the lotus flower. Another pair holds the axe and wheel. Another pair grasps two articles originally intended to represent diamond clubs and now used by priests and excursionists as religious emblems symbolizing the irresistible power of prayer.

An Outdoor Theater. A unique object was an improvised theater where wrestling was done. The affair was surrounded by bamboo, good sized fishpools tied together, making diamonds about five inches long. The platform was in the center and all around were seats arranged as in a circus, only the whole thing was made of poles. The spectators sat on seats that must have been anything but comfortable, but they could see the fun going on in the center. Overhead was a screen, not waterproof, but calculated to turn the sun mostly and was made of bamboo slats woven together and spread, curtain like, over the whole space.

The Mikado's Palace. In the olden times when the Shoguns had rule here they had a magnificent palace which, with the homes of the retainers, covered a space of 26 acres. For the time when it was erected it was a splendid structure, and it has stood for 40 years. It is surrounded by a roofed wall of earth and plaster and the minor buildings have been removed. When the whole nation came under one ruler he took Tokyo as his capital and the place was abandoned in 1868 and is now empty.

In order to visit it and the castle we had to go to the United States ambassador at Tokyo and get permits or letters of recommendation, which were kindly furnished us and we repaired to the designated place. We had first to enter a porter's lodge, record our names and places of residence and then a solemn individual was detailed to show us around. The building is indeed a peculiar combination and after seeing the royal structures of Europe I was tempted to say that the place in question looked almost like a great barn magnificently decorated, though that is a rather harsh comparison.

The fact is, however, that it is entirely of wood, one story high, wood roof, surrounded by a wide porch and the walls, instead of being brick or stone are wood and principally composed of the inevitable screen made up of rush, with openings four by six or eight and concealed, or, if I might call it, glazed with rice paper, which is white and admits light, but is not transparent. On the one hand it was gorgeous in its day and at the head of anything in the realm, yet one cannot well help comparing it with some of the more substantial structures in Europe.

A stroll through its well kept, immaculate yet deserted quarters, apartments and halls, was interesting. The ceilings are richly decorated in genuine taste and all about there is an air of elegance and wealth. The floors and all are either covered with choice matting or are polished like ivory and of course profane shoes had to be discarded, for no trace of anything must be left on those floors and no mark made on them, for all is maintained in perfect order, though the place is wholly bare of any kind of furniture or belongings whatever.

We were first received at the porter's lodge and there signed our names in a visitors' book and proceeded to a large state chamber, formerly used as a waiting room for noblemen. Here on the walls are some fine sepia drawings, but we hasten on through a banquet hall to another apartment called the cool hall, as a fine stream flows under the steps leading to the apartment. It is 40 by 63 feet and was used as the ordinary residence of the mikado. One part of the floor is covered with cement and on that dirt was strewn each morning so that the sovereign might worship his ancestors without descending to the ground. On the walls are some good paintings and heavy hinged shutters enabled the place to be made private if desired. The wood used in this whole building is chamasyaris and is the same as used in all the Shinto temples. It has a satin appearance when finished and is very handsome.

Next we came to the Shishin-den, which is 63 by 126 feet and derives its name from a variety of meanings. Shi means true color of the heavens; shin means mysterious and on means hall, and the apartment was not open to the gaze of the public, but for the enthronement of the mikado are stone steps on which men stand according to their rank and various other features, while the walls are richly decorated.

Next came three rooms decorated with fine paintings on the walls. These were used for minor receptions and the like. Next comes a suite of rooms which were used for the imperial study and where the mikado's tutors delivered lectures. They were arranged with movable screens and all richly decorated. Then come the mikado's special residence rooms, eleven in number, and finely decorated. There is a characteristic garden in rear of the palace which is lovely, though lacks actual water, but it has the rocks, the sandy bed of a stream and lacon and that is correct according to Japanese landscape gardening, which represents what you desire in this way. The rocks, large and small, are most artistically arranged and all about are trees, plants and shrubs, bridges and the usual accessories of a fine Japanese garden. A wealthy gentleman is in this country now seeking a Japanese garden which can be bought and if he succeeds he means to have the whole thing taken up, boxed and transferred to his home in our country so as to show exactly what a genuine affair of this kind resembles.

The Nijo Castle. This structure is so unique, wonderful and beautiful that I shall ask for space to describe it in part and then give the Journal readers a rest, though we saw many other structures during our stay in this fine city.

The Nijo castle was erected in 1601 and is surrounded by a wall of tremendous masonry with turrets and is a fine sample of the art and engineering of this date at which it was constructed. It was built by the mikado for use when he made his visits to the palace and in it the mikado who recently died met his noblemen and was re-invested with his full ancestral rights and there promised the council of state to grant a deliberative assembly and to decide all matters according to the public opinion. It is also empty now, though it has been occasionally used as a summer palace. It was sumptuously decorated and adorned and while some of the choice works of art have been destroyed, many still remain. It has well been called a dream of golden beauty, for such it is, though not at all what it was when first completed. The walls are profusely decorated with gold as the ground work for all wall paintings, while the ceilings are also elaborate and beautifully carved or painted. The heads of the nails used are covered with decorations beautifully finished, while lions, tigers, eagles, cranes and various birds and animals are represented on the walls. On one partition is some rare cloisonne work, very beautiful and costly.

Suite after suite of rooms follow and I find it will not do to try to describe all in detail. The walls of the suite are sparsely decorated with royal use fairly sparkling with gold ornamentation. A notable feature of this magnificent structure is the various rooms in which audiences were held. A part of the room has a floor a step higher than the rest and on that upper part sat the mikado and his eminent counselors of state, while below sat the more plebeian. In a small apartment hidden by screens and beside the upper part was a small apartment always to be seen and in which sat guards to be ready at an instant's warning should any attempt be made on the lives or safety of the grantees who sat in state. The entire structure is one of the most gorgeous and costly we have seen yet and a description which would do all it justice would fill a page or more of the Journal.

A Morning Stroll. Let us take a walk this morning through a part of this great city and note the different sights. First we come across a force of men, I was about to say, but that will not do, for men and women work indiscriminately and the fair sex seem as well qualified physically and as well contented as their brothers of the stronger sex. They are working in the extension of a street car line and handle stone, dirt or anything else that is needed and they handle it, too. Some of the material is hauled to the place or near it in carts drawn by men and a lot of men with two baskets each, the baskets hung by strings to each end of a pole carried across the shoulder, are carrying dirt in good shape. Of course any such labor saving device as a wheelbarrow would be wholly out of order, so they plod along with their back loads and seem to go without minding it and move at a lively gait.

See that roller? It can't be called steam exactly, though it is for the purpose of packing down the dirt where the street pavement is to be laid alongside the track. The roller is propelled indeed, but the power is not a small engine, but eight sturdy bulls hitched tandem and making a powerful team. As they go a man follows the roller with a shovel removing the dirt that cleaves to it and so they work. The bulls are harnessed by a stick about two inches in diameter across the neck, a short distance in front of the shoulders, and by this they pull, throwing their weight against the stick, which has tugs or traces at each end. The stick looks small, but I have not seen a bull with a sore neck, so I concluded the affair is a success. They have civil engineers in charge and the work is done accurately and well and they make good progress.

The track is securely laid, of good sized rails and well ballasted, rock is laid alongside the track and the whole work is very substantial. The street car system of the city is quite good, so far in advance of Tokyo that a person coming from that city to this notices the change at once.

And now let us seek a typical street, not a middle or central thoroughfare where everybody goes, but a place representing genuine Japanese life. Away we go a long distance on the street car, alight and walk a few "cho" as they call a square, and we are at the place desired. First we strike a theater street, where gaudy signs from slanting poles tell the story in frightful colors and backed by gorgeous pictures on the walls. Sounds of drums and occasional instruments called musical by courtesy, from within the buildings tell that the play or whatever it is going on. Here and there we hear the tum, tum, of a drum and the object is all the same, to interest the spectator and attract the customers, of whom there are many. The street is perhaps twenty feet wide and is thronged with pedestrians, for it is too narrow and crowded to admit any vehicles except the ever present jirikisha and not many of them. The people jostle one another good naturedly and pass along and seem bent on having a good time. They pass in and out of the theaters, where the cheap moving pictures and continuous vaudeville are the attraction and all seem in good humor.

Now we will turn into the regular business street, narrow, though straight for the have fed tortured thoroughfares in this place. It, too, is well filled with people, though there is some distinction between the sidewalk and the street, but people take both indiscriminately. The streets are all hard and smooth as a floor except when it rains and then they are a little slushy. See those two strange individuals approaching? They are singularly dressed and wear on their heads something which might be called helmets made of bamboo strips. They would hold half a bushel, and a little smaller as they come down over the head to the shoulders and they completely mask the wearers, though they have slits in front to enable them to breathe. The men carry in their hands instruments resembling flutes, though I have no doubt the melodious instrument we call that name would be ashamed to own this as a brother. The men move stolidly along and they guide says they are monks from the mountain monastery. We asked him if they would play for us for a compensation, but he thought not.

Across the street from us are two young women dressed without regard to price and they go along merrily talking and doubtless commenting on all whom they meet and expressing opinions and listening. They are followed by another maiden lately dressed and we were told she was their waiting maid. The great pile of fresh looking foods indicate a green grocer's stand and his list of goods is large and well selected. One thing is certain regarding such a place, all is clean and well preserved and attractively displayed. Along side of his place is a fruit dealer's place and he, too, has a fine display of goods. The oranges in this region are small, but delicious, easily peeled, seedless and always sweet and we often remark we shall not miss them a little when we leave Japan, too, are plentiful, though expensive, while oranges are quite reasonable. This is about all the fruits there is of any account. There are a few sickly looking bananas, which are sold for a great sum, as they are brought a long way and look fearfully discouraged, as though they had had the worst kind of sea sickness on the way and were ashamed to be seen.

See those fish and eels so temptingly displayed? The dealer is cleaning the snake like creatures and he picks up one wriggling like everything, pins it to a board with a spike through its head and in a moment it is ready for the frying pan. All kinds of fish are temptingly arranged for sale and we want some of them, but have no way to cook them. Inquiry shows the prices to be quite reasonable and we soon learn that the rascals in the Tokyo market tried to skin us, for the retail prices here are about one-third what the stamps at the great wholesale market tried to charge us. Alas for being tourists. Our guide wore his native dress and they didn't try to beat him.

Wonder if those gay colors a little farther along indicate another theater? Not at all; they are the stock of a dry goods store, for the Japanese ladies love bright colors and lots of them and the wily merchant reckons on that weakness and displays his gaudy colors to the best advantage. In striking contrast is the stock of a second hand store near by, for there is a conglomeration of all sorts of trumpery for all manner of uses and the proprietor sits cross legged, seemingly indifferent to the amount of business he accomplishes.

How long will it take that boy to sprinkle the street? He is using a bucket and dipper, which is about as primitive as we often see, but the street is so narrow and there is so little dust to lay that the boy makes pretty good progress and goes along unconscious of anything out of the way. Hear the bell and the clatter of a passenger, moustache and European dress, showing him to be a well to do native and he is probably on his way to his official duties. He looks neither to the right nor the left and soon will be at his destination, for the riksha man is running at a good gait on the way.

We stop at a little branch office to get some stamps and mail some letters and cards and are waited on by a black toothed old woman, who carefully weighs the cards offered her for posting. We moved on, encountering a jeweler, who has a small stock of goods, but seems out of place, for who would think of acquiring any one along this street of owing a watch?

Say, let's have a pair of native shoes to take home and wear. No sooner said than done, and we stop to investigate. The whole front of the little establishment is open to the street and soon we stop to examine their stock, the dealer grins and the boys in the shop eye us curiously and in a moment we are surrounded by a gaping crowd of all ages and both sexes, for we have evidently gone where people like us are seldom seen. They look on as if we were some kind of wild animals and when we begin to buy goods their amusement and curiosity are boundless. We select the shoes, but must have "tabies" or cloth shoes with special mitten like space for the large toe to wear on the feet. The dealer brings them out and in due time our purchases are made. For men folks a plain article costs six cents a pair and for the ladies more ornamental goods go from ten cents upward to fifty cents and even some more for a very fine article. No corns accompany such footwear, but we concluded not to try them on till we got to our hotel and then we find them very comfortable and we find them very comfortable and we find them very comfortable at home, but any thing we shall try it when we return, for we have no desire to injure the business of our worthy home dealers. Don't let that handcart run against you, for there are many of the kind along this street. It is a good sized box on two wheels, drawn by man power and it is one of many, for the men who draw them represent bakers, fruit dealers, dairymen, and all sorts of merchants and are making deliveries of goods which must be kept carefully.

Beware of that carriage, for it is the only one we see during our morning stroll and it is drawn by two spanking horses and contains a man in uniform, who is doubtless some high officer of the army and can afford to ride that way, but his kind of equipage is rare. There are soldiers on the street, some with swords showing them to be officers and some with uniforms and no weapons, which means they are high privates in the rear ranks. Strange to say, we see no policemen along this narrow, crowded street. Surely the little yellow people must be law abiding, yet I have not seen a street fight or brawl or anything approaching it since I have been in this land. Once in Tokyo we saw a bicycle which had been damaged by a cartman and a crowd gathered about, but there seemed to be no disposition to quarrel. Occasionally we see a blue coat on some of the prominent streets, where they are least needed, and that is all.

Occasionally the tinkle of a bicycle bell shows that the orient is borrowing of the occident, for the riders wear the wooden shoes of the realm and move along with a sweeping air as if conscious of their superiority. Hosts of children of all ages throng about us as we go and little folks with babies on their backs are frequently in evidence. Mothers, too, are not lacking and the throng is motley and numerous.

Here is a man who deals in umbrellas and I am sorely tempted to invest in a native article and think I shall before I leave, for they are cheap and serviceable. The man has some modern umbrellas, too, but they look dreadfully out of place and seem to apologize for being here at all. What an odor! It smells like fish and surely enough we have reached another fish market, but what is that big cauldron filled with a common man is stirring briskly. It is a fish combination made of a few, of goods left over and which he is boiling and reducing to a pulp, which he makes into cakes and sells, so as to lose none of his stock, but the man who eats it should close his eyes and be sure his stomach is copper lined.

FOR NINE MONTHS OF SCHOOLING IN THE COUNTRY.

"We ought to have nine months of free schooling for every child in the rural districts," says Dr. P. P. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education. In a letter to the superintendents of public instruction in the various states Dr. Claxton calls attention to the present short rural term and makes an earnest appeal for a campaign by the state officers to bring the school term for country schools up to that for city schools. Many of the state superintendents have already pledged their assistance in a nation-wide movement to bring this about.

Dr. Claxton pointed out how far we are in this country from approximating at present even the lowest minimum he names—a school term of 160 days. The average length of rural school term is only 138 days, or a little less than seven months, while for the cities it is 184 days, or more than nine months. Only two states, Connecticut and Rhode Island have school terms exceeding nine months in rural districts. Eleven others have country-school terms of between eight and nine months. They are—California, Iowa, Michigan, Maryland, Kansas, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, South Dakota, Washington and Wisconsin.

Many states are considerably below the seven months' average. In a number of them the country schools keep open for only six months; Florida and Arkansas keep their schools in rural districts open for five months; while North Carolina, South Carolina and New Mexico have apparently been providing their country children with barely four months and a half of schooling every year.

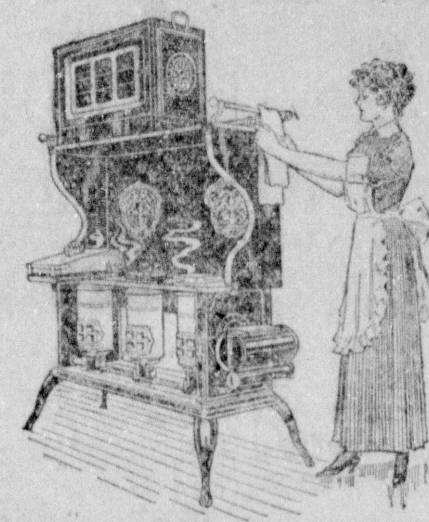

Nearly all the city schools, the Commissioner shows, already have nine months' terms, 180 days or more, with well-trained teachers, and there is no reason, he declares, why the country children should not have as many days of schooling and as good teachers as boys and girls in the city. Dr. Claxton asks a minimum school term for the rural districts of eight or nine months (eight temporarily); a minimum qualification for rural teachers of four years of high school and not less than two years of college or normal school education, and good libraries for all rural schools. "With these," he says "should go an effort to adjust the work of the rural schools more closely to the needs of country life."

A number of the states with short rural terms are making splendid efforts to bring the country schools up to the standard of their city schools. In length of term and other essentials, Dr. Claxton believes that all the states will be aided by a concerted movement for better rural schools throughout the nation.

RHODE ISLAND'S JULY 4. Providence, R. I., May 5.—Rhode Island's independence day, the 137th anniversary of the declaration of independence in the old colony of Rhode Island and Providence plantations, was observed today with special exercises in the public schools throughout the state. It was on May 4, 1776, two months prior to the signing of the declaration of independence by the thirteen colonies, that Governor George Nicholas Cooke and members of the general assembly of Rhode Island renounced their allegiance to Great Britain and enrolled themselves as rebels to the king.

Do Twelve Dollars Worth of Boosting.

We as members of the Chamber of Commerce are paying for the support of such an organization just about three cents a day, or twelve dollars a year, and some of you have expressed yourself as being the victim of a hold-up game. Instead of you being the victim it is the officers of your organization. They are paying dollars in their own time and you are spending larger denominations never to be regained through your own thoughtless knocking.

You signed a contract about six months ago to pay twelve dollars dues as a member of the Chamber of Commerce. Already some of you are trying to dodge the payment. There is not a man in Jacksonville, whether he is retired from active life or engaged in business who should not pay that amount that is support of an organization that is working for the interests of the city. Quite likely your officers are not performing their full duty, but they are laboring under difficulties. If you were made of the right kind of stuff you would help them in their feeble support if such is the case, and howl with a boost just as loud as you have been knocking with your petty criticisms. "Be a booster, rooster and crow for all you're worth."

Finances Are a Necessity.

Our Chamber of Commerce is handicapped in having no funds for publicity work, nor has the convention bureau any funds to get conventions or entertain them after we get them. The dues which the members are paying just about pays all office expenses with no surplus for the use of advertising the city elsewhere. The sooner we realize the need of a larger income and have men who will help formulate plans and raise an ample fund the Chamber of Commerce will grow to a greater power.

We think in terms of cents while other cities speak in dollar terms. We all are not expected to invest the same amount of money in the Chamber of Commerce, at some of us should be paying one hundred dollars where now we complain if we are asked for one dollar.

Alton, Ill., is raising $4,000 to entertain the G. A. R. this month. Think of it and we turn down bringing a convention to Jacksonville when it means an expenditure of $400. We as business men are paying out a very small proportion of money to the volume of business we are doing and the proportion the merchants spend in boosting our competing cities. A town will grow just as fast as the ideals of the business men conform to the town. If we grasp and try to squeeze two dollars out of one, it is natural to suppose that we will expect the Chamber of Commerce to be just as energetic.

The business men who are continually talking what a conservative city we have and what we should do are the very men who debate and finally turn down a small subscription that will boost the town and indirectly come back home. We all know who they are so they are deceiving no one but themselves.

Clean-Up Committee. A clean-up committee should be appointed at once to begin work with the city administration. This committee should be the best and most representative persons in the city. The secretary hopes that the mayor, President Andrews of the Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. W. A. Furr, president of the Women's club will get busy.

The city of Belleville will hold their centennial celebration in 1914 at which they will celebrate and erect a monument to all the governors and great men which St. Clair county contributed to the state and nation. Jacksonville should be undertaking a similar piece of work in memory of her men of history.

Seeing is Believing.

The business men who toured Jacksonville last Thursday afternoon learned that there were places in the city that do not deserve the recognition of progressive people. Within one block of the public square are piles of refuse, ashes, tin cans, and dirt, that are unhealthful and which are eye sores for ourselves and strangers.

The people who have contributed their share to these unsightly conditions should be given a chance to clean up their back yards. The city health officer and the other city officers should start immediately to serve notice on them during next week. One man nor a dozen men can accomplish much, but arouse the public sentiment of men, women and children of Jacksonville, and by next Saturday night you will see a different city.

Tomorrow if you have the time drive around by the vacant lot across from the Y. M. C. A. and you will see a great improvement. Several loads of ashes and refuse were hauled away and the ground plowed up and harrowed. This is just a beginning and strongly illustrates what will and can be done if we just get busy.

Show Day Good For Trade.

The secretary made it a point to inquire around the square the volume of business they did Saturday. Nearly everyone of them confessed that they were dead tired, and that they did a fine business. The arguments that are so often presented why a big attraction day is not a good trading day is erroneous. We are accustomed to forget the good volume of business we do on such days as yesterday. Hereafter when you are called upon to contribute to some big celebration don't argue that it will not benefit business. The secretary has convinced himself that you are wrong.

If this week is proclaimed a clean-up week, the school children should compete on seeing which school can take out the most dandelions.

Such a contest was recently held in Springfield and the Stewart school in one evening brought in 8,900 of these troublesome pests. Jacksonville schools certainly are just as energetic.

WOMAN'S COLLEGE NOTES.

Miss Jeannette Powell gave her senior recital Wednesday afternoon, April 30th. Miss Powell will graduate from the school of expression this coming June.

The college enjoyed an over night visit from Dr. Hancher on Wednesday. Dr. Hancher came to us direct from Port Arthur, Texas, and was on his way to New York. The Women's college feels a very deep regard for Dr. Hancher because of the splendid help he has rendered us in connection with the present endowment campaign, and is always glad to welcome him.

Dr. Steiner will give his lecture next Tuesday evening, May 6th, at 8 o'clock, in Music hall. Tickets may be had at Brown's music store. His lecture promises to be of unusual interest, because of the fact that he is one of the foremost authorities on sociological matters. This number will be the final number on the artists' series for the present season.

Dr. and Mrs. Harker entertained at luncheon Friday evening the seniors and teachers of the various high schools, who were in the city participating in the declamatory and field contests held that day.

The faculty of the College of Music will be heard in a vespers concert Sunday afternoon, May 4th, at 4 o'clock, in Music hall. The program is up to the standard of those performed in previous vespers concerts, and will doubtless prove very enjoyable to those who are present. The public is most cordially invited.

The Young Women's Christian association will serve their usual May breakfast next Monday morning at 8:15.

Rehearsals for the different drills to be performed in the May Day exercises, which will be held on the college campus next Wednesday evening, May 7th, at 6 o'clock, providing the weather will permit, are occurring with more than the usual frequency. Miss Evans and Miss Parsons have charge of the exercises, and doubtless the occasion will be as fine as any that have been given in past years. At the request of the ladies in charge of arrangements for the mothers' congress, to be held in this city next week, visiting delegates to this convention will be guests of honor at this college pageant.

Miss Martha C. Weaver, dean of the college, was in Springfield, acting as judge of the declamatory contest of the Corn Belt High School association held in that city Friday evening.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES.

The girls of the college who have held Ladies Education Society scholarships, are planning to provide a unique entertainment for the delegates to the mother's congress. The girls will reproduce in dramatic form one of the early meetings of the society. The play will be given in Beecher hall, and the girls will appear in the original costumes of those early days. Mrs. Sherman S. Leavitt after a careful study of the history of the Ladies Educational society has written the play.

Mr. Harris M. Robertson, a member of the freshman class, who has been ill at his home in Petersburg, returned to the campus on Thursday.

The Dramatic club will present "Much Ado About Nothing" on Tuesday evening, May 13th. Every effort will be made to make this performance come up to the high standard established last year.

Chemical fire extinguishers have been placed in all the college buildings. President Rammelkamp has been invited to respond to a toast at the banquet of the mother's congress next week.

The indications are that a large number of alumni will return to the campus for the events of commencement week. Among those who have already signified their intention of returning are: Hugh M. Wilson, '87; Edward Capps '87; A. E. Day, '88; George H. Wilson '88; J. E. Kehoe '88; Allan A. Tanner '88; T. N. Morrison '79 and George H. English '57.

The students were given a half-holiday on Friday on account of the athletic meet.

RHEUMATISM QUICKLY CURED. "My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment, old by all dealers.

NEWS FORECAST.

A special session of the New Jersey legislature will meet Tuesday to consider the jury reform bill that is advocated by President Wilson and which failed of passage at the regular session of the assembly that adjourned two weeks ago.

A statue of Carl Schurz, erected by the Carl Schurz Memorial committee, will be unveiled Saturday on Morningside Heights, New York city. Addresses will be delivered by speakers of prominence, and there will be a military parade and singing by German societies.

Expectation of a Speedy Settlement of European Peace Problems Opened up the Prospect of Re-

by Foreign Investors.
(By Associated Press)
New York, May 5.—The decided improvement in the European political situation consequent upon Monte-negro's decision to yield to the powers, and the resultant strength of securities abroad, exerted the dominating influence upon the stock market today.
Expectations of speedy settlement of problems which have menaced the peace of Europe for months opened up the prospect of the re-purchasing of American securities by foreign investors.
London, in fact, has been buying stocks on every favorable opportunity for some time and before the opening here American stocks in London were marked upon sharply.
The situation was one which offered no comfort to the bears and there was spirited bidding for stocks to cover when the market opened.
London also was in this market,
buying most heavily of steel, Amalgamated and Union Pacific. Operations on the long side were carried on more confidently, and in the first hour there was a quick upturn, resulting in gains for important issues of 1 to 3 points.
The action of the market during the remainder of the day showed that the improving prospects abroad had not produced sufficient effect here to bring about aggressive and sustained buying for the long account. Trading grew dull, and prices eased off, although in the final hour the list
rose to around the top again.
Traders were disappointed at the supreme court's refusal to extend beyond July 1 the time for completing the Harriman dissolution, and union and Southern Pacific sold off.

Fascinating Hair

Easy to Stop Hair Falling Out, and Dandruff Also.

No one doubts that it is the duty of every woman to look as charming as possible. Every woman knows why she wants to be beautiful and attractive.

A woman with scant hair, dull and lifeless, has lost half of her charm. How many times have we heard the expression "the crowning glory of a woman is her hair."

Nowadays, thanks to Parisian Sage almost every woman can have hair so radiant, and so glorious that it attracts, fascinates and compels admiration.

Parisian Sage, the scientific and ideal hair rejuvenator and tonic, will cause hair to grow. It will turn harsh, withered hair into lustrous hair in a few days.

It is a most delightful hair dressing that kills the dandruff germs, stops falling hair, and eradicates dandruff in two weeks, or your money back.

A large 50 cent bottle is sold by Coover and Shreve and dealers everywhere at the money back plan.

WILL ARRANGE FOR PEACE CELEBRATION

DELEGATES GATHERED IN NEW YORK TO OPEN CONFERENCE.

Meet to Arrange Plans For Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Treaty of Ghent, Which Marked Beginning of Peace Era.

New York, May 5.—There was a distinguished gathering of delegates representing every English speaking country in the world at the governor's room at the New York city hall this morning, when Mayor Gauger formally opened the international conference convened for the purpose of arranging plans for the appropriate celebration of the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Treaty of Ghent, which marked the beginning of an unbroken era of peace among all English speaking peoples.

Notable among the British delegates were Lord Weardale, ex-president of the inter-parliamentary union; Captain Sir Arthur Lawley, ex-governor of Madras; Lord Stanhope, Sir Herbert Eustace Maxwell, a lord of the treasury; Charles Thomas Mills, M. P.; Newlin, M. P.; the eldest son of Lord Roseberry; Arthur Shirley (Benn, M. P.); James Allen Baker, M. R.; Moreton Frewen M. P., L. vice president of the Imperial Federation league; Henry Vivian, M. P.; Sir Edmund Walker, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce; Charles A. McGrath, M. P., one of the Canadian members of the international boundaries commission; Travers Lewis, of the University of Toronto; Capt. Charles Frederick Hamilton, secretary of the Canadian committee; H. S. Perrie, secretary of the British committee; Eugene H. Outerbridge, the representative of New Foundland, and Sir George Houston Reid, P. C., high commissioner of Australia, Belgium, or rather the city of Ghent, where the famous treaty was signed on December 24, 1814, was represented by Alderman C. De Bruyne, high sheriff of Ghent, and Alphonse Van Werveke, curator of the museum of Ghent. The American delegates included Joseph H. Choate, honorary chairman of the American conference committee; Alton B. Parker, William Church Osborn, Col. Robert M. Thompson, Washington, D. C.; Charles Stewart, Davidson, William Curtis Demorest, Dr. John H. Finley, William D. Forbes, Austin G. Fox, Dr. E. R. L. Gould, Andrew B. Humphrey, Dr. George F. Kunz, Calvin W. Rice, Dr. Louis L. Seaman, William Salomon, Isaac N. Seigman, Andrew Carnegie, Cornelius Vanderbilt, George T. Watson, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and others.

After the formal opening Mayor Gaynor delivered an address of welcome, to which response was made in behalf of the visitors by Lord Weardale, chairman of the British conference. After the preliminaries Mayor Gaynor requested Mr. Alphonse Van Werveke of the museum of Ghent, to preside over the meeting. The session lasted several hours and at the close the delegates were the guests at luncheon at the Pilgrims society at the Waldorf Astoria.

After today the international conference will meet daily at 4 p. m., though most of its work will be done by sub-committees. Although it is impossible at the present time to forecast the program which the conference will eventually agree upon, it may be said that the celebration will principally center around three momentous dates: December 24, 1814, the centenary of the signing of the Treaty of Ghent; January 5, 1915, the centenary of the dinner given by the city of Ghent in honor of the joint high commission which had arranged the treaty, and February 17, 1915, the centenary of the ratification of the Treaty of Ghent. It rests with the conference to decide what form the celebration or celebrations are to take.

The American committee will hold its annual meeting on Friday, May 9, at 11 a. m., at the Hotel Plaza. Andrew Carnegie will preside and Congressman Flood of Virginia, Prof. W. A. Dunning of Columbia university, and others have been invited to deliver addresses.

In the evening of the same day the visiting delegates will be the guests of honor at a dinner to be given by the American committee at the Hotel Astor, ending the conference in this city. During the conference, the visitors will be entertained by Andrew Carnegie, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Dr. Louis Livingston Seaman and others. One feature of their entertainment will be a sail up the Hudson, if the weather is pleasant.

On the morning of May 10, the visiting delegates, with a small escort of members of the American congress will depart for Boston, where they will be entertained by the local centenary celebration committee, acting in conjunction with another committee of citizens headed by Mayor Fitzgerald. On the following day the delegates will start for Washington, D. C., where they will be received by President Wilson and his cabinet on Monday, May 12. On the following day the delegates will visit Richmond, Va., reaching Philadelphia on May 14. Then they will visit Chicago, returning to New York by way of Detroit, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, in time to sail for England on May 31.

Health a Factor in Success. The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.

AN INTERNATIONAL MARRIAGE.

Baltimore, May 5.—An international romance reached its culmination today in the ceremony at the cathedral in this city which made Baroness Alix Moncheur the bride of Robert F. Loree of New York. Cardinal Gibbons officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the presence of a notable company of society people. Following the ceremony there was a wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's great aunt, Mrs. William H. Blackford.

The bride is the daughter of Baron Moncheur, the former Belgian ambassador at Washington and now the diplomatic representative of his country at Constantinople. Her stepmother is a daughter of the former ambassador to Mexico, Gen. Powell Clayton and Mrs. Clayton. Mr. Loree, the bridegroom, is a son of L. F. Loree, former president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad and now president of the Delaware & Hudson company. The couple first met while the Baroness Moncheur was visiting Mr. Loree's sister, who was a classmate at school in Washington. A courtship speedily followed and their engagement was announced last November.

Chicago, May 5.—"The City Beautiful" in all its phases is to be considered at the fifth national conference on city planning, which convened in this city today for a three days' session. Prominent among those in attendance are Frederic Law Olmsted, the noted landscape architect; Virgil G. Bogue of Vancouver, author of the "Seattle City Plan"; William A. Magee, mayor of Pittsburgh, and M. M. Malbis of the public service commission, New York city. Two well known experts from abroad who are here to address the conference are Edward G. Culpin of London, and Werner Hegemann of Berlin.

CHICAGO RED MEN WILL BRING BAND HERE WITH DEGREE TEAM

Great Keeper of Wampum J. F. Brennan Received Letter From W. B. MacFerran—Council Notes.

At Springfield Sunday a conference of the Great Chiefs of the Great Council of Red Men was held to discuss the council meeting to be held in this city May 19, 20 and 21. J. F. Brennan of this city, great keeper of wampum, attended the conference.

A letter has been received here by Mr. Brennan from Great Sachem W. B. MacFerran, telling of the arrangements for the transportation of the Chicago team, representatives and a band. The letter in part follows:

We will leave here Sunday morning at 4 o'clock on the Wabash. The train is due to arrive in Jacksonville about 5:15. There will be from 60 to 65 in the party, the party to be composed of representatives, their ladies, the degree team and the band. We will contribute enough to pay the railroad fare of fifteen members of the band. I am directed to say that this band will be at your disposal every hour of the day or night until the band leaves Tuesday night. They are simply going down to Redmen to help along with the convention.

"W. B. MacFerran, Great Sachem."

Mr. Brennan was notified Monday that the big Danville delegation will join the Chicago party enroute and reach Jacksonville on the same train.

The following paragraphs entitled "To Be Seen at Jacksonville" are taken from the current issue of the Illinois Red Man, of which George Madam of Bloomington is editor:

The Great Council headquarters at the Danlup.

Sight seers going to the asylums and looking over the model city of no saloons.

Everybody will go to bed at 9 o'clock, that is if they are in a cell and have to.

The best reception committee on earth to meet you at the train and tell you where to go.

The hotels will all be full, but they have the best rooming houses that will take care of you.

It is too bad the interurban does not run at the city as the steam lines will make no concessions.

The smiling countenance of "Uncle Joe" Brennan the minute you strike the city and as you leave.

You will never strike a finer bunch of brothers than you will see in Delaware Tribe at Jacksonville.

George Davis, the mayor of the city, with his new wife. Everybody that last year he was a confirmed bachelor.

They have a beautiful park, but it needs some improvements to get it up to date, but take a run out and see it any way.

No matter what business house you go into you will find a Red man. The city is full of them and they are all good fellows.

Jacksonville is a city of beautiful homes, asylums, colleges, fast horses, automobiles and beautiful women, take your choice.

They do say George Davis never had a room at the Great Council sessions. What will he do now that he is married? Ask his wife.

A. B. Opperman is the Chief of Records of Delaware Tribe and has been so long that his hair is gray with excitement, but you can bet your bottom dollar that he is always on hand if there is any work to be done for the order.

No rates on the railroads, or hotels or anything else. The brothers will have to put up wampum just like a white man on this trip.

Everybody will have to be good while here as this is a good city and a model one at that. It is in the air and you can't help being good.

If you want to know more about Redmanship attend this session.

There will be degree work, a school of instruction and plenty of enthusiasm.

The principal points of interest are the Blind asylum, the Deaf and Dumb asylum, the Insane asylum and the park. Street cars take you to any of these.

The Improved Order of Red Men are or ought to be gentlemen. Let's make the citizens of this town know that we are and they will be glad to welcome us back.

Seven great sons ago the Great Council met at Jacksonville. We then had 162 Tribes and 11,803 members. We now have 250 Tribes and over 18,000 members.

Pocahontas' headquarters will be at the Pacific, and of course there will not be a man near, except Bro. Gee looking after his wife, the next Great Pocahontas.

If you get into trouble about finding your way around the city ask the police. They are all like little lambs, while Red Men are here and delight in serving you.

Billie Anderson who represented the tribe several times, is a busy man but you can gamble on it he will shut up his shop if necessary to entertain the visitors.

There is going to be plenty of entertainment for those not representatives. There never was such a gathering as there will be in Jacksonville of Red Men from all over the reservation.

Just take a peep into the lobby of the Pacific and you will see the best looking Pocahontas in the city there. She will be on exhibition as she knows she is good looking. But remember brothers she is married and so are you, even if you are away from home.

GROUP PICTURE OF MERCHANTS.

A panoramic view of the attendants at the Illinois Retail Merchants association at Alton recently is in one of the windows of the Tomlinson clothing store. It is an artistic piece of photographic work and has probably 250 well defined faces depicted in it.

J. E. Goff of Indianapolis was spending Monday with friends in Jacksonville.

LAKOTA, NORTH DAKOTA.

Sinclair Russel was a business caller in town Saturday. He reports that he is done seeding wheat and is fast preparing ground for other grains. Mr. Russel is exceptionally well pleased with the way his brood mares treated him; three fine mare colts.

Mr. Keitzman, who has charge of the agriculture farm near Lakota, is operating six plots or small farms and has all the seed in but his corn, which he will plant soon. This farm is under the management of the State Agriculture college at Fargo, N. D.

Mr. Charles R. Pettes, who has a large dairy farm, says his alfalfa meadow came through the winter fine. He got three cuttings last season.

Jep Henry has finished seeding about 300 acres of wheat.

The Berriedale farm has finished about 800 or 900 acres of wheat and 160 oats at the present writing.

Clayton Bros. have in about 300 acres wheat at present writing. They are agreeably surprised at the amount of labor one team and man can do.

All Morgan county people on the big farm are well. Mr. Henry has about 1100 acres broken and 700 acres seeded.

W. C. Davenport of Lakota sold an unimproved farm to Mr. Brude at $40 per acre.

Thomas Baird, Jr., who has spent the winter in Springfield and Chicago, came home last week and brought back all the popular hits of the season. Mr. Baird is the leader of the Lakota orchestra.

HAWTHORNE AND MORTON

CASES UP.

Atlanta, Ga., May 5.—Whether Julian Hawthorne and Dr. George W. Morton, convicted in New York of misuse of the mails in connection with promoting mining schemes, shall be released on parole, depends upon the decision of the federal parole board, which met here today to take up the applications of a score or more of prisoners now confined in the Atlanta penitentiary.

Hawthorne and Morton entered the prison March 24 to serve sentences of a year and a day each. Although the trial judge stipulated that their sentences should date from November 25, when their trials began, the department of justice at Washington decided in an interpretation of the parole law they must actually serve one-third of the time in prison before they are eligible for release. If the board acts favorably on their applications they consequently will be released the latter part of July.

Start Your Baby With Sound Health

Regular Bowel Movement from Childhood on Forestalls Future Serious Diseases.

We cannot all start life with the advantages of money, but every child born is entitled to the heritage of good health. Through unfortunate ignorance of carelessness in the feeding of a baby its tiny stomach may become deranged. The disorder spreads to the bowels and before the mother realizes it the two chief organs on which the infant's comfort and health depend are causing it great suffering. If the condition is allowed to continue grave ailments often result.

There is, however, no occasion for alarm, and the sensible thing to do—but it should be done instantly—is to give the baby a small dose of a mild laxative- tonic. In the opinion of a great many people, among them such well-known persons as the parents of Dixie Dudley, Magnolia, Ark., writes: Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best medicine I ever used. It cured my baby of flatulency colic when the doctors failed; it cured my husband of constipation. My home shall never be without Syrup Pepsin. It is a pleasant tasting laxative, which every person likes. It is mild, non-irritating, and contains the most excellent of all digestant, pepsin.

This remedy is especially intended for infants, children, women, old people and all others to whom harsh cathartics, salt waters, pills etc., are distressing. In fact, in the common disorders of life, such as constipation, liver trouble, indigestion, biliousness,

If no member of your family has ever used Syrup Pepsin and you would like to make a personal trial of it before buying it in the regular way of a druggist, send your address—a postal will do—to W. B. Caldwell, 417 Washington St., Monticello, Ill., a free sample bottle will be mailed you.

Two generations of people are using it to day, and thousands of families keep it constantly in the house, for every member of the family can use it. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a bottle, the latter being the size bought by families who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded.

LEG SLATIVE COMMITTEE INSPECTS LOCAL STATE INSTITUTIONS

Members Arrive in Special Car via Burlington and After Visit go to Quincy.

The special committee on visitation, appointed by the last state legislature, which is making an inspection of the various state institutions, was in Jacksonville Monday. They arrived over the Burlington from the north in the morning in their special car, "Liberia," and left in the afternoon for the Wabash for Quincy, where they will visit the Soldiers' home.

The party, which consisted of forty, arrived at the School for the Blind about 7 o'clock and they were guests of Superintendent and Mrs. Woolston at breakfast. At 8 o'clock they went to the chapel where a program was given. The program consisted of an explanation of the system of teaching the blind and a demonstration of the musical department, violin, organ, piano and voice. This was followed by a demonstration of the physical culture work. The program consumed about forty-five minutes after which the committee went to a room where there was an exhibit of the work of the manual training department.

The next place visited was the Jacksonville State hospital. Here Superintendent Carriel and his assistants extended every courtesy to the guests and they inspected the various departments of the institution.

The State School for the Deaf was reached at 11:30 o'clock where the company attended the usual chapel exercises of the school. Here was given a demonstration of work of the younger classes, and a number of compositions were read, which had been written by the more advanced pupils. After the chapel exercises the library and study rooms were visited, together with the industrial shops. Superintendent Gillett had arranged luncheon for the visitors and all expressed themselves much pleased with the institutions here.

THE APPEAL OF THE BISHOPS FOR THE ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

The Board of Bishops learns with great interest of the campaign for one hundred and eighty thousand dollars now being conducted by the Illinois Woman's College at Jacksonville, Illinois. Again and again the Board has heartily approved this college located in the central west, and now desires to appeal to Methodism everywhere to make swift and sure response in order that its fund may be completed by June 4th, which is necessary to meet conditional subscriptions already made and other conditions involving the standing of the institution. Fifty-five thousand dollars remains to be raised. The time is short. The issue is great. Will not all readers of this note send to President Joseph R. Harker Jacksonville, Illinois, the largest possible pledge for the institution? Payment may be made at any time during the period of three years. This is the only college exclusively for women our church has west of Pittsburg. The character of its work the spirit of its life are of the highest order. No institution in the church has been better managed. The time is short.
Authorized by the Board of Bishops at Charleston, West Virginia, May 2nd, 1913.

ASA NEWMAN SUFFERS BROKEN ARM WHEN 'CYCLE SCARES HORSE

Horse Receives Bad Wound in Breast And Will Probably Die—Cart is Wrecked.

In company with another young man Asa Newman was riding in a cart on his way to visit his aunt Sunday about noon, when a rapidly driven motorcycle approached from the rear, frightened the horse which reared the cart, threw both boys out, Asa sustaining a broken arm, and the animal received a serious wound in the breast.

The runaway took place about 1 mile south of Alexander and when the horse reared the shafts in the cart were broken, one of them inflicting a serious wound in the animal's breast. The horse was taken to the barn of a man residing nearby and Dr. Carter was called. It is thought the animal will die. It is said that the rider of the motorcycle did not give any warning of his approach, other than noise made by the engine of his machine, and that he did not stop to see what damage had been done, or did not even slacken speed. The horse and cart were the property of William Wood of Alexander.

IMPRESSIVE SERVICES HELD FOR JOSEPH TOMLINSON SUNDAY

Large Crowd Gathers to Pay Last Tribute to Former Mayor and Long Time Business Man.

Sunday afternoon a large crowd of relatives and friends gathered at the home of T. M. Tomlinson, 315 Lockwood Place, to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of Joseph Tomlinson, whose funeral services were held at 2:30 o'clock. The services were most impressively conducted by Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of Grace M. E. church assisted by Rev. H. D. French, pastor of State Street Presbyterian church and Dr. A. B. Morey.

Rev. Mr. Miller spoke from First Corinthians 15-57 as follows: "Throughout this remarkable chapter we see the marshalling of Paul's great argument for the resurrection. From the beginning the thought rises, the love grows more confident and hopeful until in the closing verses there in the shout of victory, 'thanks be to God who giveth us the victory through our Lord, Jesus Christ.'"

"In thinking of the life of Mr. Tomlinson these words seem especially appropriate. His life was clean, strong, noble and generous. He had done his work. His character was ripened for immortality and when the end came he was fully ready. Death could not touch the years of helpful, useful service he had rendered. Death could not touch the noble character he had slowly built through the years. Death could not lay hands on the soul redeemed and fitted for the skies. These were forever beyond death's power. All that death could claim lies there, the frail, worn body.

"When Socrates was asked concerning his burial he replied 'Bury me if you can catch me.' We do not bury Mr. Tomlinson. He is not here. Already he is wandering the fields and heights of immortality. He had victory in his life through the grace of the Lord. He lived a good life. It was upright and transparent in goodness. He loved his fellowman and his good will and generosity gave hope and encouragement to many in life's struggle.

"He had victory in death. He was ready to stay or ready to go. It was in the Lord's hands. He had complete victory over death. The grave had no terrors for him.

"We must remember through whom was the victory over death. We have the victory through Jesus Christ. O, my brethren how much we owe to Him. We owe the noble achievements of life. We owe the treasure of life and happiness here to Him. We owe all that the future has for us to Him. Would that I could worthily present Christ's claims so that men everywhere would honor Him who hath conquered death for us all."

Rev. Mr. Miller reviewed the life of Mr. Tomlinson as a citizen conducting an important business for years in this city and also as an official into which service he took that same integrity and uprightness that characterized his private Christian life. In concluding Rev. Mr. Miller said: "For over twenty years he had been a prominent official in Grace M. E. church. In every relation, citizen, public official, member of the church, at home, he was always the strong, true, brave man. He followed always his Master. The long, useful and happy life was closed here and the exultant note of Paul's resurrection faith was most appropriate for the description of this good man. It was a victory through Christ."

Miss Katherine Rogerson sang "My Jesus, As Thou Wilt," by Von Weber, and the many beautiful flowers were cared for by Mrs. Parker Doan, Mrs. Edward Dunlap and Mrs. C. A. Johnson.

Interment was made in Diamond Grove cemetery. The honorary bearers were: S. R. Canos, Judge M. T. Layman, Henry H. Knollenberg, John Ward, J. W. Breckon and T. B. Orear. The active bearers were John McBride, John Long, John L. Johnson, J. T. Osborne, C. P. Gillette and W. E. Veltch.
